

City of Manhattan Beach, California

Proclamation

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK
May 21, 2006 through May 27, 2006

WHEREAS, public works facilities and services provided in our community are an integral and essential part of our citizens' everyday lives and such facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of Public Works professionals, engineers and administrators; and

WHEREAS, the support of an understanding and informed citizenry is vital to the efficient operation of public works systems and programs such as streets and highways, flood control, parks, water, sewers, public buildings, and solid waste collection and disposal; and

WHEREAS, the health, sanitation, safety, and comfort of this community greatly depend on these facilities and services; and

WHEREAS, the quality and effectiveness of these facilities, as well as their planning, design and construction are vitally dependent upon the efforts and skill of public works officials; and

WHEREAS, the efficiency of the qualified and dedicated personnel who staff public works departments is materially influenced by the people's attitude and understanding of the importance of the work they perform.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, I, Mitch Ward, Mayor of the City of Manhattan Beach, California, do hereby proclaim the week of May 21, 2006 through May 27, 2006 as in the City of Manhattan Beach and call upon all citizens and civic organizations to acquaint themselves with the challenges involved in providing public works facilities and services and recognize the contributions that public works officials make every day to our health, safety and comfort.

"NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK"

Dated this 16th day of May, 2006
