Dear Council Members;

As a 30 year resident and taxpayer of Manhattan Beach, I am writing to encourage you to reinstate TEDxManhattanBeach funding to $5,000.

Have you attended TEDxManhattanBeach? Besides TEDxMB being the 'first' TED'x' affiliate (vs TED Talks) it is number one with being the most inspiring, educationally, thought provoking event in our community. Beside volleyball, it is THE event that provides exposure to Manhattan Beach on a GLOBAL platform (tedx.com) as being a smart and forward thinking community. That HAS to be good for our city's reputation and makes us ALL proud.

Noteable, TEDxMB provides something for ALL it's residents...young, old, any race/sex/religion/physical ability, etc and is reasonably priced!

Please reconsider the BIG, overall impact TEDxMB creates for our community. It brings us together and promotes real conversation about what's possible...and we know how important that is for all!

Best,
Marisusan Trout

Dear Council Members

I am writing to encourage you to please reinstate TEDxManhattanBeach funding to $5,000.

TEDxManhattanBeach is a diverse,inter-generational educational event brings residents together and builds a stronger community.

Importantly, TEDxManhattanBeach is accessible to residents with a $35 ticket for seniors and high school students.

Our Beach community greatly appreciates and needs events like TEDxManhattanBeach and our city should continue to support it.

Sincerely

Dear City Council,

I am a student at Mira Costa and am asking that you reinstate the full $5,000 funding for TEDxManhattanBeach. As a student in Technical Theater, our class has the opportunity to volunteer at TEDxManhattanBeach and get first hand experience working with a professional production crew. This is invaluable experience for us and we are proud to represent Manhattan Beach and put on such an incredible community event.

Importantly, City funding has been used to offer discounted tickets to Seniors and Students so that people with limited income can attend.

I hope you will reinstate the full funding for TEDxManhattanBeach.

Sincerely,
Olivia Volk
