2. Selection of 2022-2023 Chair and Vice Chair

Chair Marcy called for a motion; it was moved and seconded (Tokashiki/Manna) that Commissioner Rubino be appointed Chair and Commisisoner Spackman, Vice Chair for the 2022-23 term.

ROLL CALL:

AYES: Manna, Spackman, Tokashiki, Vice Chair Rubino, Chair Marcy

NOES: None

ABSENT: None

ABSTAIN: None

Senior Analyst Robb explained the rule for rotation of the Chair/Vice Chair positions: selection is by seniority by date appointed, and in the event that two commissioners were appointed on the same date, the Commissioner with the higher seat number has seniority. In the case of Commissioners Spackman and Tokashiki, both appointed June 1, 2021, but Commissioner Spackman (seat 3) has seniority because Commissioner Tokashiki serves as seat 4.

Commissioner Rubino expressed her appreciation for being selected to serve as Chair and also for Chair Marcy’s chairmanship.

G. STAFF ITEMS

Director Leyman/Sr. Analyst Robb reported:

- MBAC exhibition “Out of the Mold” opening, held last Friday, was well attended, including the majority of the CAC Commissioners, the event was successful and the new Glaze Lab is now open.
- MBEF Donor Wall: the City Council will have a second discussion on this project at tomorrow’s meeting (May 17). The Council countinued its review due to some concerns.
- Scout House project: City Council will review the MOU agreement between the City, the Friends of the Senior and Scout Community Center, and MB Property Owners at tomorrow’s meeting. The MOU will spell out the use of the center for the various users. Director Leyman stated he will be happy to share details with any interested Commissioners, but a significant issue was that the cost of construction has recently significantly increased, necessitating increasing the city funding.
- Public Arts Trust Fund: a report was not available.
- New CAC members: Suzanne Karger will replace Commissioner Manna and the student commissioner will be Riya Attam.

Director Leyman expressed appreciation for Chair Marcy’s excellent leadership as Chair over the past year as well as for Commissioner Fred Manna’s six years of service on this and prior Parks and Recreation Commission, and these expressions were echoed by Commisisoners Rubino, Tokashiki and Spackman.

H. COMMISSION ITEMS

Chair Marcy thanked Commissioner Manna for his service, noting he will be sorely missed and all Commissioners joined with personal gratitude and comments. Commissioner Manna thanked all, commenting that he enjoyed his service and will be looking forward to seeing improvements at the Art Center come to fruition.
