Mayor Napolitano: This is our open session for closed session. Roll call please.

City Clerk Tamura: Councilmember Franklin.

Councilmember Franklin: Here.

City Clerk Tamura: Councilmember Hadley

Councilmember Hadley: Here

City Clerk Tamura: Councilmember Stern

Councilmember Stern: Here

City Clerk Tamura: Mayor Pro Tem Montgomery

Mayor Pro Tem Montgomery: Here

City Clerk Tamura: Mayor Napolitano

Mayor Napolitano: Here.

City Attorney Barrow: Just for the benefit of the public, there are two separate meetings tonight. They were adjourned from the five o'clock session yesterday and also the six o'clock session. So we have two meetings running concurrently.

Mayor Napolitano: All right. We'll open it up to any public comments. Any member of the public online want to address the council on any matter?

Sr. Deputy City Clerk Alvarez: There are no public comments at this time.

Mayor Napolitano: Okay we'll close the public comments. And turn over to the City Attorney to announce the subjects to be discussed in closed session.

City Attorney Barrow: Thank you Mayor. We'll begin with the six o'clock adjournment from yesterday and the City Council will go into closed session to have a conference with its labor negotiators. Government Code Section 54957.6 and also to conduct a public employee performance evaluation. We're looking at Government Code Section 54957 of the city manager. In addition, in the adjourned meeting from the five o'clock session yesterday, we've got three or four different matters involving litigation. So pursuant to Government Code Section 54956.9 (d)(1), that's existing litigation in the case of Californians for the home ownership versus the City of Manhattan Beach. There will be a conference with legal counsel on anticipated litigation. Government Code Section 54956.9 (d)(2)(e)(1) and (2) and (d)(4). Announced previously, the Californians for home ownership have threatened to file a second lawsuit. And then finally, the City Council will be going into closed session to discuss initiating litigation.

Mayor Napolitano: Okay

RECONVENE INTO OPEN SESSION

Mayor Napolitano: Okay, we're back from closed session to our open session. Mr. City Attorney anything to report on?

City Attorney Barrow: Yes, Mayor. As noted, the City Council into closed session, five different closed session items on two separate agendas. The Council gave direction to its labor negotiators and gave direction to its City Attorney on item (e)(1)(b). No other action taken.

Mayor Napolitano: Okay. We are adjourning from the five o'clock closed session yesterday and the six o'clock regular meeting and this meeting as well.

City Attorney Barrow: Correct.

Mayor Napolitano: We are adjourned from three different meetings. Thank you all. Good night, everybody,
