The developers of the High-Rose project should be ashamed for their blatant greediness. This project should not be allowed to go forward.

I support the approval of the Highrose Project. I don't want the City to incur the excessive legal fees associated with the many lawsuits and legal actions associated with defending the project's denial. I understand that we could be liable for legal fees for the parties suing the City as well as our litigation costs. The City is looking at over a million dollars of exposure. And we will likely lose.

I live near the project (about 250 yards) and do not have a problem with it.
